

Watch some 'Horrible Histories' on Netflix/Iplayer/Youtube. You'll find some excellent episodes about World War One 	 Using materials from home - plan and build a model of a WWI trench or a WWI Weapon that is labelled	Imagine you are writing a letter to a soldier who fought in WWI. You want to thank him for everything he did and went through.
Visit - https://www.iwm.org.uk/history/5-things-you-need-to-know-about-the-first-world-war and learn the basics of World War One. Look at the images and posters too!	<h2 style="text-align: center;">S3 HISTORY Home Learning Tasks</h2>	Research the name of a family member who perhaps fought in WWI, or the name of a local Linlithgow man who fought in the war. If the soldier was killed in the war - you can use this website: https://www.cwgc.org/
Create a propaganda recruitment poster that would encourage men to join the War effort. Look at examples online. 	Find out who Douglas Haig was. He was the commander of British forces on the Western Front. Create a biography page about his life and what he did during WWI 	 Create your own Wordsearch on the World War One Unit. Use this website: https://thewordsearch.com/maker/