Summary of feedback received

Positive Experiences

1. Convenient to access from home; easier and quicker than in-person meetings.
2. Teachers were well-prepared, knew the students, and provided useful advice.
3. Online meetings saved time and hassle, eliminating the need for childminders.
4. Overall positive experiences with smooth and focused conversations.

Challenges/Frustrations

1. Connectivity issues: trouble connecting, couldn't hear or be heard in some cases.
2. Difficulty booking appointments for certain subjects.
3. preference for face-to-face interactions.
4. Limited time in appointments; frustrations with the 6-minute time constraint.
5. Inability to connect from multiple devices; issues with the system for two parents on a call.

These summaries capture the range of positive and challenging experiences reported by individuals during the online parents' night sessions.

7. Would you continue to support this online parents evening format being the new normal over the years to come?
