

213 responses submitted

I am the parent/carer of a

213 responses submitted

Do you think the change of our formal assessment window from January to November/December was generally beneficial for your child/children?

82%
Yes

17%
No

Why do you feel it was beneficial to your child? Some possible options below:

There is now more time before the final exam to prepare and consolidate

38%

Opportunity to relax over Xmas/come back knowing what is now required

43%

February week holiday reduces time available for assessments/marking/completion ...

6%

Simpler schedule as assessment generally took place during subject double period.

9%

Other

2%

Why do you feel it was generally not beneficial for your child? Some possible options below;

They required the Christmas break to study

They were not as prepared as they could have been

Other

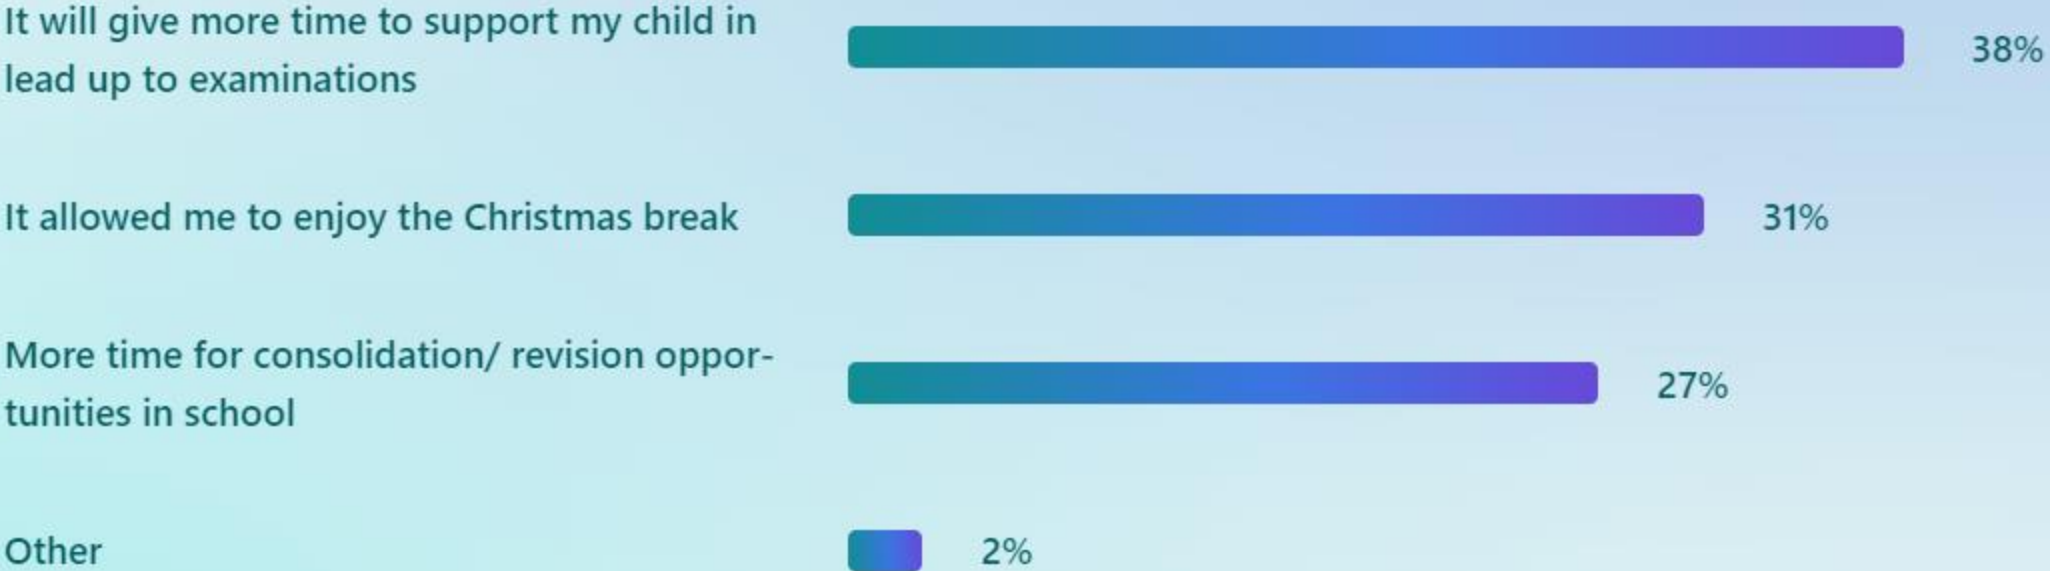

Was it generally beneficial to you as a parent/carer?

83%
Yes

16%
No

Why do you feel it was beneficial for you? Some possible options below:

Why do you feel it was generally not beneficial for you? Some possible options below:

Time not available for preparing my child for their assessment

I found the balance of organising my child's revision and pre Christmas planning a...

Other

Considering all of the above, would you like our Formal Winter Assessments to be held in November/December next year?

76%
Yes

13%
No

10%
Neutral