Summary of comments received

- Overall very positive: Most parents found the online system smooth, efficient, and easy to use.
- Convenience: Online meetings were valued for saving time and fitting around work and family life.
- Teachers: Feedback was generally high quality, with teachers knowledgeable about pupils and offering helpful advice.
- Time limits: The 6-minute appointments worked well for quick updates but a couple felt it to be too short especially when issues needed deeper discussion.
- Technical issues: Only a small number of families experienced connection or device problems.

- Future format: The vast majority supported continuing online evenings with a few suggesting face-to-face options.
